The village lies close to the river Teviot and lies adjacent to the entrance to Minto Golf club. The subject's location is 6 miles northeast of the closest town, Hawick. Hawick is a prominent Borders town located some 50 miles or so south of Edinburgh and straddling the A7 Edinburgh to Carlisle trunk road route. The population is currently around 14,000 people and the town occupies a prominent location. Whilst Hawick is the largest of the Borders settlements, the principal shopping facilities are located within Galashiels, some 18 miles or so further north along the same A7 arterial road route. More specifically, the site lies adjacent to the entrance to Minto Golf Club which hosts an 18 hole golf course and clubhouse open to the public.
