Description

Offering a glazed frontage onto Main Road in Grange over Sands this ground floor retail space is situated within the former Post Office Chambers building. Previously used as a florists, the property would now lend itself to a range of uses, including retail, office and beauty. Internally the space is around 476 sq ft and is largely open with potential for flexible use. Ancillary storage or back-office space may be possible depending on layout and tenant requirements. The property also has the benefit of wc facilities

Location

Excellent located on Main Street, fronting the central road running through Grange over Sands town. The premises are situated within a mixed use area of general retail with neighbouring properties including the Spar and town's main Post Office, the property also sits directly opposite Higginson's Butchers. Grange-over-Sands is a well-regarded and vibrant Edwardian coastal town situated on the southern fringe of the Lake District National Park which benefits from not only its resident population of around 4000, there is a wide catchment area and also excellent tourist trade throughout the year.
